

CORRESPONDENTS
WASHINGTON IDAHO GRAND ASSEMBLY
Form due May 15

Grand Assembly Correspondents are representatives of Washington Idaho. Although Correspondents are not considered a Grand Officer, they will be recognized as a Grand Representative in other jurisdictions and introduced under that category during introductions.

Requirements: A Rainbow girl (14 years or older) may apply for a Correspondent position by submitting the attached form to their Grand Deputy. Parents or guardians must sign application. A girl does not have to be a past Worthy Advisor to apply.

A Correspondent must agree to attend the workshops! She must follow Rainbow guidelines, meet deadlines as requested and attend Washington Idaho Grand Assembly. If serving the jurisdiction as a Correspondent, a girl should not expect any other appointment for Grand Assembly as it would interfere with her responsibilities during sessions.

Correspondents at Grand Assembly wear matching dresses with crinoline petticoats. The cost of the dress is between $75 - $80. Grand Assembly guidelines prevail for hair, shoes and practices. Hair must be worn up and off the face, in French braids or short-short. Wiglets are optional at Grand Assembly.

Correspondents are encouraged to visit Grand Assembly Sessions in the jurisdiction they represent. They must be accompanied by a parent or an authorized adult chaperone from Washington Idaho. Exceptions are permitted if the host family agrees to meet girl on arrival, be responsible for her during her visit and take her to the airport for return flight. Authorization forms must be signed by girl's family and host family before girl departs.
